CONSTITUTION OF THE
PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY
NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INCORPORATED

(Formed 1986)

PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Prairie View A&M University National Alumni and Ex-Students Association believing that the University has made substantial contributions to the citizens of the State of Texas, to the United States, and to the world, and further believing that these citizens of similar aspirations for the perpetuation of the University should bind together in order to form a more perfect union among alumni and ex-students of Prairie View A&M University in order to promote, support, and provide service to the University, do enact and establish this Constitution and accompanying By- Laws for the government of its members.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation is amended from Prairie View A&M University National Alumni Association and Ex-Students Association, Incorporated to read as follows: PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

SECTION 1. The purpose of the Association shall be to form a union of Prairie View A&M University, alumni, ex-students, and interested citizens of similar aspirations for the perpetuation of Prairie View A&M University by:

- (a) Building and fostering understanding and support of Prairie View A&M University;
- (b) Providing services to alumni and loyal friends of the University;
- (c) Encouraging communications among Alumni and the University;
- (d) Serving as the central organization for the various Prairie View A&M University Alumni and Ex-Students, Clubs, Classes and Chapters;
- (e) Organizing and implementing programs necessary for securing grants, endowments and other financial assistance for the University.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. This association shall have four (4) classes of members, as follows:

(a) Annual Member

All individuals holding degrees, diplomas or certificates awarded by Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) and all ex-students who completed at least one semester or one full summer session and departed in good standing with the University shall be eligible for all privileges of active annual membership in the Association, including the right to vote and hold office therein upon the payment of annual dues and other assessments as established by the Board of Directors.

(b) Life Member

Active members who shall pay a fee, as determined by the Board of Directors, to the Association shall be designated as Life Members of the Association. A graduate within one (1) year of earning an undergraduate degree from PVAMU may join the Association at a 60% reduced rate of the Life Membership rate. SECTION 3: The Ballot

The Nominating Committee reports the names of those individuals nominated from the floor at the meeting which shall comprise of the candidates for the offices designated and the nominations shall be closed at that time.

SECTION 4: Balloting Procedures

A. As soon as practicable after nominations have been closed, but not later than ten (10) days, the Nominating Committee shall cause to be prepared and sent, to each Chapter, Class or Club, ballots for each active member of the Association in that Chapter, Class, or Club. A ballot shall also be prepared and sent to each active member of the Association who is not a member of a local Chapter, Class or Club. Each financial Chapter, Class or Club shall also receive two (2) ballots. Copies can be sent by mail, fax or email.

B. Balloting procedures are as follows:

(a) A ballot containing the names of the candidates for each office, which shall be in such form as the Committee shall decide, but without distinction as to the manner of nomination of the candidate.

(b) An example shall be provided for the return of each ballot. The envelope shall have the word "BALLOT" on its face; beneath said word, a line for the signature of the voter.

(c) A letter of instructions will be included to explain how to vote said ballot, specifying the last date and hour which it shall be postmarked when received by the NAA Office Administrator to be considered eligible.

(d) Upon receipt of the ballot and envelope, to cast a valid ballot, the voter shall be required to:

- (a) Mark the ballot, in the space provided on the ballot, expressing his or her vote for as many nominees as there are positions to be filled within each office, but no more; and
- (b) Place the ballot in the envelope provided therefor, which shall be signed by the voter.

(e) The date set for the last date on which the ballot shall be received as a valid vote shall be ten (10) days prior to the beginning of the National Convention.

(f) Promptly following the expiration of the time for returning ballots, the Nominating Committee and the Treasurer of the Association shall meet, and they shall determine that the persons signing each return envelope containing a ballot is duly qualified to vote.

(g) All valid envelopes containing the ballots are to be opened and the ballots are to be deposited in a ballot box, then the canvas of the votes shall proceed.

(h) The election shall be determined by a plurality of votes cast. If there is a tie vote, the candidates involved shall cast lots to determine the election of the position affected.

(i) When the canvas has been completed, the Nominating Committee shall certify the results of the election to the Board of Directors.

(j) The President/Chairperson of the Board shall make a public announcement of the results of the election certified to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 5: Election of officers by Acclamation or Unanimous Consent

During the required process of certifying the election ballot of qualified applicants seeking to serve in an elected position on the Board of Directors, if it is determined that the certified ballot is presented without any competition for any position on the certified ballot, it will be deemed an "unopposed ballot." The presented candidates can then be considered "elected" upon the cast of one vote by the national secretary.

ARTICLE V.

FINANCES

SECTION 1: Treasurer

The Treasurer shall be responsible for managing the funds of the Association and is primarily responsible for fundraising. He or she shall manage funds and give bond in an amount to be determined by the Board of Directors.
